What Is Browser Fingerprinting?

When you visit a website, your browser shares information:

- Device type and operating system

- Screen resolution and color depth

- Installed fonts and plugins

- Time zone and language settings

- Browser version and settings

Combined together, these create a unique "fingerprint" that can identify you—even without cookies.

ACTIVITY TIME 2

https://haveibeenpwned.com/